Family of Formidable victims visit Lyme for centenary year

By FRANCESCA EVANS

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

RELATIVES of those who died in the sinking of HMS Formidable in Lyme Bay 100 years ago visited the town this week for a service organised by the Royal British Legion.

The Lyme Regis branch of the Royal British Legion commemorated the sinking of HMS Formidable by German torpedo on New Year's Day 1915 with a ceremony held in the town cemetery yesterday (Tuesday), exactly 100 years to the hour after a funeral service was held for those who died.

HMS Formidable, the first battleship to be sunk in action during the First World War, was struck by a torpedo from the German submarine U24 at about 1.30am on January 1st 1915, about 30 miles south west of Lyme Regis. Of the 780 aboard, 35 officers and 512 men died.

Several boats, including an overloaded sailing pinace carrying 71 men, launched from the ship after it was hit. The pinace drifted away in the stormy sea and was soon swamped with water, with the crew fighting for survival for 22 hours before coming ashore at Cobb Gate in Lyme Regis at 11pm.

Of the 71 men aboard, 14 died and were buried at sea, 48 were brought ashore alive, six were found to be dead on arrival and a further three died after landing.

The Pilot Boat Inn became rescue headquarters, where the famed tale of Lassie the dog originated after the landlady's collie dog stayed by the side of Able Seaman John Cowan, thought to be dead, licking him and sharing her warmth until he came around.

Three of the dead were repatriated to their home towns but six of those who died were buried on January 6th 1915.

Standard bearers from 15 branches of the Royal British Legion and the Royal Naval Association started the commemoration events yesterday afternoon by marching through the cemetery before a graveside service led by the Reverend Jane Skinner.

The Exhortation was delivered by chairman of the Royal British Legion Lyme Regis branch, David Manners, and Bryn Hawkins, bugler with the Royal Marines Lympstone, played the Last Post and Reveille as a minute's silence was observed.

Wreaths were then laid on the HMS Formidable grave by Commodore Jamie Miller of the Royal Navy; Captain Elaine Overend, secretary of the City of Liverpool branch of the Royal British Legion; relatives of those who died and survivors of the HMS Formidable; the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Sally Holman; and representatives from Royal British Legion and Royal Naval Association branches across the region.

Captain Overend was sent to represent the Lord Mayor of Liverpool, Councillor Erica Kemp CBE, who sent a letter to the Mayor of Lyme Regis thanking the town for treating HMS Formidable victim Stoker William Charles Eley, from Liverpool, as "their own son".

William Charles Eley was one of the six men buried in Lyme Regis, aged 24, and his family was repre-

KEY "Ballonatic" Hart was born in Bournemouth and grew up in South London, running an entertainment agency before coming to Weymouth where he is now famous as a balloon-making entertainer.

● WHY do you live in Weymouth?

Because it is probably one of the most awesome places I have ever been to. I have a great affection for Weymouth because when I was 17 I was a Blue Coat at Pontins at Osington Bay.

● WHERE do you go for your holidays?

It is too nice in Weymouth to go anywhere else so I am really on holiday all the time.

What is your favourite time of the year?

Summer because I do like the sunshine and the festivals. It is the busiest time of the year for me.

● WHAT is your favourite film?

The Shawshank Redemption because Morgan Freeman is one of my favourite actors. He was amazing in the film.

● WHAT is the scariest thing that has ever happened to you?

I do stiltwalking and I fell off them and landed on cobbles. That was scary because I was off work for eight weeks and it took a lot of nerve to go back up 12feet and do stiltwalking again.

● IF you could live your life again what would you be?

I would be a musician because I have always wished that I had some musical talent. I would love to play the drums.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Edward Lear because of the amazing imagination he had creating all those limericks, Alice Cooper because he is one of the greatest showmen and rock stars and because I was in the film Dark Shadows with him. My third dinner guest would be Harry Houdini because he was the first man ever to make magic and escapology famous. He's the name that everyone remembers.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

I don't think that it would change me much. I would use the money to help people who are a bit less fortunate than me.

● WHAT do you hope the future holds?

I hope that I can continue to spread smiles one balloon at a time.

HMS Formidable relatives attend graveside service

represented yesterday by his great niece, Alison Eley, from London, who discovered her family's links to Lyme Regis after reading research on the subject carried out by the Wessex branch of the Western Front Association.

She said she had seen an image of the cross which marks the HMS Formidable grave in her grandmother's house but had never known where the grave was.

Other relatives attending the event included Ben Tatham and his wife, representing his uncle, Lieutenant Trevor Tatham; Jo Robinson and family representing her great grandfather, LS Aaron Toms; Nick Barber and wife Ann representing his great grandfather, ERA Louis Wyers; John Slingsby representing potential family member Midshipman John Slingsby; Carol, Ashleigh and Sam representing their great uncle, Stoker Alfred George Draper; Gaynor Boyd representing her husband's great uncle, Bosun William Charles Gosney.

Other Royal Navy personnel, Legion members and local residents also attended the service, and a reception was held afterwards at the Pilot Boat Inn to honour the important role the pub played in the rescue operation.

Carnival committee donates £6,000 to local good causes

LYME Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee are pleased to announce that, following another successful year, they have been able to grant a total of almost £6,000 to 25 local good causes.

Those receiving donations are as follows: 1st Charmouth Scouts, Bonfire Night, Brownies, Christmas Lights, Community Lunch Club, Father Christmas Sleigh, Football Club (youth section), Get Together Club, Gymnastic Club, Hallett Court, Christmas Lantern Workshop, Lyme Regis Lifeboat Crew, Lyme Regis Majorettes, Lyme Regis Town Band, Lyme Regis Museum, Operatic Society, Pantomime Society, Power Boat Club (Youth Section), Sailing Club (Youth Section), Slopes Farm Community Garden, St Michael's School, Table Tennis Club, Tae Kwon Do Club, West Country Befriending, Youth Theatre.

Chairman of the Regatta and Carnival Committee, Teresa Evemy, said: "Despite the very small committee and the economic climate we have had a successful year organising eight events as well as the 70 events during Regatta and Carnival Week in August."

"Although our principle aim is to enhance the holidays of the many families who come to Lyme Regis every year, we have been able to raise a substantial amount of money and respond to requests from local good causes including several new ones this year."

Sadly, we were unable to give support to everyone who asked for money this year. My small committee and I have worked hard to minimise the costs of our events and have tried to make them accessible to as many people as possible.

"Once again we are indebted to local businesses who have supported us and to the many people from Lyme who have helped us with events and collections."

"We are already enthusiastically planning next year's events but we are in need of extra help if next year is to be as successful. Our annual general meeting, to be held on Wednesday, February 26th, will elect a new committee and start planning for next year, we hope that you will be able to come and support us."

Uplyme Parish Council chairman steps down

CHAIRMAN of Uplyme Parish Council, Peter Whiting, has stepped down from the role due to ill health.

In his resignation speech at this month's parish council meeting, Councillor Whiting thanked everyone for their good wishes and cards, and fellow councillors and parish clerk Lois Wakeman for their support; and he concluded by expressing his best wishes for the future of the council.

Councillor Whiting will continue to sit on the council but not as chairman.

Mrs Wakeman commented: "His expertise in technical matters, as well as council procedure, will be greatly missed at meetings, as will his sense of humour."

Vice-chairman John Garland was elected in his place, and Councillor John Duffin as the new vice-chairman.

Council enquiries should now be directed to the clerk or to the new chairman Councillor Garland, with contact details available on the website www.uplymeparishcouncil.org

Fatal crash after driver has 'medical episode' at wheel

A MAN from Tintinhull, near Yeovil, died after suffering a "medical episode" and crashing his car on Charmouth Road, Lyme Regis, last week.

The fatal collision occurred at 3.25pm on Friday afternoon, when a silver Skoda Octavia being driven by the 70-year-old man towards Charmouth was involved in a head-on crash with a blue Vauxhall Astra being driven into Lyme Regis by a 50-year-old man from Exeter.

Police said that early indications showed that the Skoda driver suffered a "medical episode" at the wheel.

Police, fire and ambulance crews attended the scene and attempted to resuscitate the man but he died on the roadside. Devon Air Ambulance also attended, landing on the nearby football pitch.

The driver of the Vauxhall and his 40-year-old female passenger sustained slight injuries.

The area of Charmouth Road was closed for several hours whilst police investigated the incident. Witnesses to the collision or manner of driving by either car leading up to the incident are asked to contact PC Gooding of Dorset Police Traffic Department by calling 101.

Lyme saddened by death of much-loved and talented artist

OBITUARY

Edna Dorrington

THE Lyme Regis community was shocked and saddened to learn of the death of local artist Edna Dorrington on January 2nd, aged 80.

Edna was a much-loved, talented artist who brought an infectious enthusiasm to the hugely popular art scene in Lyme Regis.

She died during a Christmas and New Year visit to Australia to see her son, Graham, his partner Flavia and grandchildren Corrado and Renzo, shortly after celebrating her 80th birthday on Boxing Day.

Edna was a teacher, specialising in art in Hertfordshire before moving to Lyme Regis with husband Peter in retirement in 2002.

Sadly, Peter died just two years after moving to Lyme and Edna was soon after became involved in the annual ArtsFest events.

She once wrote: "ArtsFest was fantastic for me. I met so many people and made friends with so many other artists."

Edna's artistic specialism was Monmouth Beach, and she became known as the "pebble lady", admitting to being somewhat obsessed with them. But she then added people to her distinctive works, commenting: "They weren't real people but a sort of hybrid and a bit of fun."

Edna was chairman of Lyme Regis Art Society, played an important part in ArtsFest, a member of the Town Mill Arts Guild, and member of other art groups in Lyme, Axminster and Morecombelake. She was also involved with the U3A, the Lyme Regis Society and Lyme's two twinning associations, as well as volunteering at the museum shop.

Her paintings hang in many homes in Lyme Regis and further afield.

Edna had two children, Caroline and Graham, and four grandchildren.

Caroline and husband Tim's children are daughter Sam and famed singer-songwriter, 24-year-old Tom Odell, who is most recently known for singing "Real Love" for the "Monty the Penguin" John Lewis Christmas advert. Edna was quietly very proud of the achievements of her grandson and was certainly his number one fan.

Sheila Stratton, secretary of the Lyme Regis Arts Society, said: "Edna was an enormously talented artist; she touched us with her humility and inspired us with the attitude that if she could do it, so could you. There are many members who will always be grateful for her unconditional friendship, unerring loyalty and unquestioning support."

Edna's closest friend and fellow artist, Angela Rushforth, added: "Edna will be sorely missed by so many."

A first for music charity B Sharp as pupils prepare to perform at Exeter Cathedral

YOUNG singers and musicians from across the region will raise rafters at Exeter Cathedral next week in a special concert of music and song inspired by Beer Quarry Caves.

At its heart is B Sharp Vocal Collective, a choir of more than 160 children and young people from West Dorset and East Devon who have been working on original material with professional musicians lead by composer John K. Miles.

The concert, on Tuesday, January 13th at 7.30pm, is in collaboration with the Woodroffe School and the Jurassic Coast Teaching School Alliance and will see the B Sharp Vocal Collective soloists and choir join with more singers from Woodroffe and Colyton Grammar schools. The performance will also include poems, stories, films and music, all inspired by Beer Quarry Caves, produced by other schools in the region.

"This has been an epic 18 month project for B Sharp, schools and hundreds of children and young people in the rural areas of West Dorset and East Devon," said Fran Williams, director of B Sharp, the Lyme Regis-based youth music charity.

"To be able to sing in a prestigious venue such as Exeter Cathedral, which was built from Beer stone, is a really special experience and a first for such a large group of children from this area."

Work began on the B Sharp Voices project last year at Beaminster, Woodroffe and Colfox secondary schools. A 94-strong choir of primary school singers from St Michael's in Lyme Regis, Mrs Ethelston's in Uplyme, Marshwood and St Mary's in Bridport was added in the autumn with songs and music developed in workshops and concerts with music leader John K. Miles, vocal coach Deborah Jordan, drummer Winston Clifford, guitarist Jack Ross and B Sharp music mentors Chloe Stratta and Jacques Verhaeren, as well as guest musicians, including Adrianna Adewale (percussion, vocals) and Dave Mannington (bass).

Previous concerts have been held at St Michael's Parish Church and the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis.

B Sharp Vocal Collective has been funded by Youth Music and West Dorset District Council and is designed to raise levels of aspiration in young people through group singing.

Mrs Williams continued: "Music making is life changing. Projects like this are incredibly important because we engage young people in singing at an early age through to adulthood and develop collaborative working with our education partners."

Tickets for the concert at Exeter Cathedral are available from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, for £6 priced £6 or £3 for concessions. Buses to Exeter leave St Mary's in Bridport at 5.30pm on the day and from Woodroffe School 6pm. To book seats on the coaches email christinenewton@bsharp.uk.com

New polling station for Lyme Regis voters

SOME voters in Lyme Regis will have a new polling station for the 2015 elections in May.

Following the European Parliamentary Election in May 2014, concerns about access and parking were raised about the polling station in St Michaels Business Centre, off Church Street.

During the summer, West Dorset District Council consulted with local district councillors and Lyme Regis Town Council to help identify other suitable premises. A number of other polling stations were suggested and visits were made to check their suitability.

The district council has decided to use the communal room at Halletts Court in Queen's Walk for the combined parliamentary, district council and town council elections scheduled for Thursday, May 7th on a trial basis.

The communal room is spacious, has disabled access and is more centrally located within the main residential area in the eastern side of the town. There is also good parking provision on the road immediately adjacent to the building.

Woodmead Halls will remain as the second polling station in Lyme Regis.

Below are some useful deadlines for residents who wish to vote at the combined parliamentary and local government elections on Thursday, May 7th:

- Registering to vote – Monday, April 20th;
- Requesting a new postal vote or making changes to an existing postal or proxy vote – 5pm on Tuesday, April 21st;
- Requesting a new proxy vote – 5pm on Tuesday, April 28th.

The cast will also include Cathryn Brooks as Slave of the Ring, Daniel Edwards as Wishee Washee, Stuart Knowles as The Grand Vizier, Adam Tedbury as The Emperor Chow Mein, Amanda Rattenbury as Princess Lotus Blossom, Tanya Rattenbury as So-Shy, Harvey Causley as The Genie of the Lamp and Lorraine Knowles as The Mummy. The show will run at the Marine Theatre from February 17th to 21st, 7.30pm nightly with a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets for £8.50 per adult, £4.50 per child and £7.50 per OAP will be available from Martin Diplock estate agents in Broad Street from mid-January.

Stand by for an 'eruption' in the Guildhall

IF I had paid attention to more than just the girls' legs when I was at Woodroffe, I would know my Latin and could tell you whether 2014 was an annus horribilis for Lyme Regis Town Council or whether it was the year in which the council fell on its annus, horribil-ly.

Either way, it was a rough old time in the Guildhall and veteran council-watchers tell me that it was the worst year to be a councillor, what with all of that messy business of accusations, resignations, apologies and the howling over Mayor-gate, Daryl-gate, Twittergate and Bicycle-gate – let alone those controversial bailouts of The Royal Bank of Hubland which established a new world-first for the English language, that an "error" is not a "mistake".

Stroll on. At times it's been better than watching Buster Keaton.

Who'd be a Lyme Regis town councillor these days, eh? It's bad enough getting it openly in the neck with professional nit-pickers like me taking point-scoring to the level of religious fundamentalism, let alone getting defamed as some sort of hole-in-the-wall desperado on a poster commissioned by Cobb Gate's Scarlet Pimpernel.

But here's the good news – if you thought the whole Chipperfields Circus of

COUNCIL SKETCH

By Geoff Baker

2014 was lively, the word on Broad Street is that we ain't seen nothing yet.

For 2015 is set to be Lyme Regis Town Council's annus eruptus.

Although Val at Boots can usually sell you something for that, rumour has it that we can look forward to a new blow-up; a volcanic power-struggle of such intensity that I'm already in negotiations with the British Boxing Board for the TV rights – for the talk in the town is that the council's current ruling clique is going to be challenged by a completely new group, which I'm dubbing 'the Lyme People's Party' as there's no name for them yet.

If the rumours are right, you can forget the "Gang of Five", as the gangbusters are gathering and they are said to be offering no quarter to Lyme's most popular quintet.

ALTHOUGH I am not one to put the cat amongst the pigeons, according to a highly-placed source within this new group, 'a significant alliance of the Lyme-born and the town's business elite' are putting together an ace team of popular local personalities to stand against the radicals at the council elections in May.

"We want to get Lyme back for its people; we've had enough of the reformist agenda and we're going to go back to the old tradition of doing things Lyme's way," is the sort of thing my source would say if I hadn't lied when I promised not to quote him.

Apparently there is great concern among the Lyme People's Party that elements of the council are believed to have their eye on authorising a massive development of the Monmouth Beach area, which would start with shifting the Bowling Green up to Strawberry Fields in order to free-up space for a huge double-deck car park.

Ignoring the associated but wildly-optimistic trust that downhill bowling will catch on, clearly such an eviction would kill the sport in the town stone dead, ruining the enjoyment of many of the elder community. But that's presumably OK because a Cabanya Carbuncle would give the council more money to do important stuff like fund the legal advice which appears to be sought every time that anyone in the right-on Guildhall says boo to a goose.

"But we're not going to let it happen," says my source within the LPP, "a lot of people in Lyme are fed-up to the back teeth with all of this argy-bargy in the Guildhall and they want to retain the traditional look of Lyme."

"We want a council that has the town's respect, not its derision. We will stop all of this republican talk to replace the office of Mayor with an all-powerful Leader of the council, we will block any move to change the civic traditions and we will put up as candidates the sort of people who will ensure that."

Oo-err, fighting talk.

APPARENTLY, the LPP has plans to stop the not-exactly-transparent practice of committee chairmen meeting to discuss agendas before they are put to the rest of the councillors and it will end the council's obsession with conducting so much of its meetings in secret, when the electorate are ejected like children shooed to bed before a re-run of The Exorcist.

The new group says it will also commit to put the needs of 42 per cent elderly majority of the town first, stop the whacking up of council rents because, stupid, that obviously drives up commercial rents and thus causes local inflation, disallow any arbitrary action by the staff and make it a lashing offence to permit a dog to pee in Manor Avenue.

I made up that last one, but you get the point; the LPP cavalry is coming and the battle at the election "to bring the power back to Lyme's people" is going to be better than Harry May's fireworks.

My source says "several" well-known Lyme personalities are being groomed by the LPP to stand for the council and others are willing to throw their names into the hat if another rumour is true – that the massively-popular clique-smiter Daryl Turner is going to make a comeback and stand for the council again.

So, the questions that will now be burning holes into half-pint pots at The Nag's Head are who is behind the Lyme People's Party and who are the worthies now readying to stand for the seats that six of our current councillors are said to be wanting to give up?

I wish I could say but I promised that I wouldn't write a word...

Icy start to married life as newlyweds take

francesca@pemedial.co.uk

RATHER than jetting off to a tropical paradise for their honeymoon, newlyweds Nigel and Flo Le Gassick started married life with an icy dip in Lyme Bay as they and their wedding party took part in the Formidable Lyme Lunge on New Year's Day.

The couple were engaged the previous New Year's Day while watching the Lunge and married on New Year's Eve in St Michael's Parish Church, followed by a reception in the Marine Theatre. They were joined by more than 20 of their friends in bridal costumes and dashed into the sea with about 300 other brave swimmers in aid of Help For Heroes.

Organised by the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis, this year's event was renamed the Formidable Lyme Lunge, rather than just the Lyme Lunge, in commemoration of the sinking of HMS Formidable by German torpedo in Lyme Bay 100 years earlier, and was filmed for BBC Spotlight regional news.

Swimmers paraded around the beach to show off their varied fancy dress costumes before dashing into the sea on the signal of the Mayor, Councillor Sally Holman, watched by a crowd in excess of 1,000 people.

By The Bay restaurant then served soup to warm up those who took the plunge.

More than £4,000 was raised for this year's chosen charity, with further sponsorship money still to be received. Organisers would like to thank all sponsors, as well as the lifeboat crew, the mayor and town crier, St John Ambulance, By The Bay, Pasty Presto for providing pasties for the volunteers, Rotarian Jim Mosely and all helpers and collectors.

Lyme Regis sailor bags trophy 59 years after first winning it

A VETERAN sailor won Lyme Regis Sailing Club's Bonning Trophy last season, 59 years after he first won it in 1955.

Colin Walters won the middle distance race trophy for the first time in a Christchurch Coot dinghy when he was just 17-years-old and the trophy itself had only been presented eight times.

After a number of years in the Navy, he went to live and work in London in the 60s, returning to visit his mother in Lyme Regis and sailing an Albacore from the club. He competed in the Fastnet Race in 1973 before giving up sailing for a while when his children were born.

When Colin began again, it was at Datchet

Water Sailing Club, near London, where he was in charge of youth sailing from 1981 to 1986 with exceptional results. One of his young sailors was the late Andrew "Bart" Simpson, Olympic medallist, who met fellow Olympians Ian Percy and Sarah Webb on one of the annual race training courses at Datchet.

Having retired to Lyme Regis, Colin still continues his work with youth sailors at the sailing club as well as his dinghy racing.

■ HOLDING THE TROPHY AGAIN: Colin Walters with crew member Amanda Wright and the trophy was a two and half hour race in light winds from Lyme Regis to just beyond Charmouth, which Colin raced with his crew, Amanda Wright.

He was delighted to have won again after 59 years, though he did have one reservation.

"I wish it had been 60 years! I'll have to have another go in 2015," he said.

Lyme man gets MBE in New Year honours

By PHILIP EVANS

philip@pemedial.co.uk

A Lyme Regis man was awarded the MBE in the New Year Honours List.

Brian Larcombe, 63, who was brought up an educated in Lyme, was honoured for his services to the UK Hydrographic Office (UKHO) and to industrial relations.

Mr Larcombe, the eldest son of the late Alan and Peggy Larcombe, was educated at Lyme Regis Junior School and Lyme Regis Grammar School (now the Woodroffe School) and was a playing member of Lyme Regis Football Club as a young man.

He still has strong links with his hometown, owning property in Lyme, and being the brother of former Lyme businessman Colin Larcombe, and Howard Larcombe, chairman of Lyme Regis Football Club.

Mr Larcombe's public service to the UKHO has been prolific and sustained over 41 years, from his years as a skilled mapping and charting officer to his current role in human resources.

During this time he has shown a passion for UKHO's mission to protect lives at sea as well as compassion for his colleagues.

In this area in particular he has demonstrated a long-standing and selfless devotion to Trade Union work, as TU chairman for 25 years, which has contributed distinctively to ongoing good working relations, serving on a number of national bodies.

Mr Larcombe's commitment to the trade union movement started when he began work as a 19 year old for Rolls Royce in Derby, where he saw the workforce reduced by 10,000 people in just ten months.

He vowed there and then he never wanted to see that happen again and throughout his career has fought tirelessly to protect jobs and maintain the public sector status of the hydrographic service.

Chief executive Admiral Ian Moncrieff said: "Brian is a wonderful example of fine citizenship in public service and wider society."

"He has committed a huge amount of personal time and always goes the extra mile for the benefit of others."

"His stalwart dedication and positive intervention in trade union work has supported harmony and excellence in this workplace."

"He has helped make UKHO a great place to work and the 1,000 people onsite to find career satisfaction in public service."

Mr Larcombe's commitment outside his work includes 16 years as chairman of Comeytrowe Parish Council in Taunton and he was a long-standing governor at the Castle School.

Commenting on his appointment as Member of the British Empire, Brian said: "I am delighted that my work has been recognised, not just for myself but for my family who have supported me throughout my career."

He first heard about the honour when he received a letter from the Cabinet Office in November informing him that Prime Minister David Cameron was recommending to the Queen that he should receive the MBE.

Mr Larcombe is looking forward to his invitation to Buckingham Palace to receive his MBE when he will be accompanied by his wife Wendy, daughter Sarah and son Chris.

Rubbish start to New Year!

■ LYME Regis Sailing Club celebrated the New Year with a rubbish boat race in the harbour. A total of 16 boats made from household rubbish took part in the New Year's Day race following the Lyme Lunge. The very windy conditions should have favoured smaller craft, but the challenge was won by Darren Moore (far left) who used a bin bag, two plastic bottles, sticks, tape and coins to weight the keel. His boat crossed the harbour to the North Wall well ahead of other competitors.

Lifeboat answered 31 calls for help

LIFEBOAT volunteers in Lyme Regis answered 31 emergency calls during 2014, exactly same number as the year before.

RNLI lifeboat operations manager, Grahame Forshaw, who is also the harbourmaster, said: "As in previous years, we continue to be asked to rescue sailors whose boats have broken down for one reason or another.

"My New Year's message to boat owners would be to check all the basics before going to sea. It may seem obvious, but you have to make sure you have enough fuel for the journey you are going to make; check that all the life-saving equipment is in good order, radio, flares, life jackets, etc.

"Another piece of equipment that could be vital in the event of a breakdown is an anchor because the last thing you want is to find you have no power and the boat begins to drift.

"The majority of those who use our waters are very responsible, but sometimes we need reminding of the basics."

Mr Forshaw said he and his staff in the harbourmaster's office were always ready to answer questions from sailors such as sea conditions, the prevailing weather and safety issues.

■ REPORTS of an upturned tender near Golden Cap resulted in the first shout of the New Year for Lyme Regis lifeboat crew on Friday.

Solent coastguards requested the lifeboat to launch at 5.05pm, but after a widespread search nothing was found. Coastguards stood down the lifeboat at 5.45pm.

Huge crowds for duck race

THE annual New Year's Day duck race in aid of Lyme Regis Christmas lights attracted a record crowd and raised £646 for the cause.

Hundreds of families lined the River Lim from the start line in Windsor Terrace down to the finish outside Jordan Flats.

The race was officially started by town crier Alan Vian and members of Lyme Regis lifeboat crew released the ducks and ushered them down the Lim.

Due to rainfall, it was also one of the fastest races which enabled the crowds to go on to the formidable Lyme Lunge later that afternoon.

The event was also filmed by BBC Spotlight regional news.

Popular 'Shady Tree' tales to return in March

LOCAL historian Ken Gollop will present another of his popular "More Tales from Under Shady Tree" talks on Sunday, March 1st in aid of Lyme Regis Museum.

This year, Mr Gollop will delve into wartime Lyme in advance of a special exhibition opening, documenting life during 1939-45. Despite the ban on photography during this time, the museum has a rich archive of photos taken during the war including several groups like the army cadets taken in 1944 (pictured above).

The exhibition will open at the museum in May to coincide with the anniversary of VE day and it is then hoped to have it moved to the Marine Parade shelters during the summer. If any readers have any photos or memorabilia of wartime Lyme the museum would be pleased to see them.

Mr Gollop will present "More Tales From Under Shady Tree" at the Woodmead Halls at 2.30 on Sunday, March 1st. Those interested in attending are advised to arrive early as previous talks have been sell-out successes.

Colourfence

the smart choice for long lasting, low maintenance fencing

Low maintenance, longer life, better value...

Now Available Throughout Dorset and South Somerset

Experienced local business owners, Andy and Shelley Stewart, have launched Colourfence in Dorset and South Somerset. And that's great news for the area's homeowners who have become tired of all the costly and time-consuming maintenance that accompanies traditional timber fencing, which means we all get to spend less time maintaining our boundaries, and more time enjoying our gardens.

Colourfence is comparable in price to quality timber installations, although of course its unique low maintenance and durability means it will almost certainly work out cheaper in both time and money over the years.

Virtually maintenance free and designed to withstand harsh climates, Colourfence not only holds its colour for over 25 years it acts as a solid barrier, even against wind gusts of 130mph! The only maintenance your fence will require is an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new – so you never need to pick up that paintbrush again!

Colourfence is manufactured in Gloucestershire with all surveys and installations handled by a network of locally owned franchises. But, until the Stewarts became involved with the brand, nobody covered the South West – something that surprised Andy when he first came across the company.

"I was amazed Colourfence wasn't promoted in this area already, as there is clearly so much demand," he says. "We would certainly buy it ourselves; we have a garden and have spent too many afternoons with a paintbrush in hand. We've also spoken to friends and family who've recently had to repair or replace storm-damaged panels.

"Virtually no maintenance, coupled with its strength and durability make it the classic no brainer," he adds. "Moreover, the costs and guarantees means Colourfence is much better value than timber in the long term."

A timber fence needs maintaining – usually once a year. And that takes time. But even with the utmost care and attention, timber will age, spoil and need replacing. Colourfence, on the other hand, is made from innovative Colorbond steel and features an anti-corrosive coating that won't rust. The company also produces ColourRail matching railings or gates that are guaranteed not to corrode or flake for ten years.

With all its prices published on the website, Colourfence's customers know exactly what they pay. And that means they don't have to worry about negotiations or the hard-sell tactics that many home-improvement companies deploy, something Shelley Stewart says she wouldn't put their name to.

"Andy and I built and sold a franchise with a well-known home-improvement company, and we had a great reputation with the public," she says. "We always put a lot of emphasis on customer service, and were pleased to find Colourfence upholds those same standards."

Colourfence built its model on ethical trading, and features a number of customer testimonials on its website. The company has also collected a few accolades since landing on these shores, becoming a RHS Gold Award winner and being voted one of BBC Gardenings Top Ten products.

District leader resigns to take on county role

WEST Dorset District Council leader Robert Gould will formally resign from his post this week, it has been confirmed.

Councillor Gould, who also took over the leadership of the county council recently, said he would be stepping down to concentrate on his new role.

He is set to be replaced as leader by Councillor Anthony Alford, representative for the Allington and Netherbury ward, who is expected to formally take up the position tomorrow (Thursday).

Councillor Gould, who spent more than a decade at the helm of the district council, had also been standing in as leader of the county authority following the resignation of former leader Spencer Flower, who is facing a court trial for failing to declare personal interests in planning matters.

And the Conservative member was elected on a permanent basis early in December, after defending the council's handling of the accusations against Councillor Flower.

In a statement, Councillor Gould said it had been a "great privilege" to lead the authority in delivering a series of "flagship" projects, but that he must now focus his attention on the county council leadership.

"I have recently been elected leader of Dorset County Council. I have decided therefore that I must step down as West Dorset District Council leader so that I can give my full energy to this new role", he said.

"I have immensely enjoyed my 10-and-a-half years as leader and it has been a great privilege to lead the authority through a period of unprecedented change.

"I am very grateful for the support that I have received from members and officers in this time."

Councillor Gould said he was proud to have ensured the council's finances were well managed and that council tax had been kept low during his tenure.

He also remarked on the key move to cut costs by working more closely with partner councils in Weymouth and Portland, and North Dorset.

"Together we have achieved so much for the residents of West Dorset, but most importantly we have ensured sound financial management and kept our share of the council tax low.

"This has enabled us to avoid the large cuts to services other district councils have been forced to make, maintain support for our voluntary organisation and deliver large flagship projects, such as the new Dorchester Sports Centre and Lyme Regis coast defence works.

"Our move to more efficient offices has unlocked the potential for partnership working, first with Weymouth and Portland, and now North Dorset. This groundbreaking work has been recognised nationally by the award of over £2million to implement the three-council partnership."

Councillor Anthony Alford was elected by the Conservative Group as its new leader last week and is expected to be voted through as Councillor Gould's successor at a meeting tomorrow.

Councillor Gould added: "I trust that on Thursday [Councillor Alford] will be elected as the new leader of the council and I know he will be outstanding in this role.

"I am confident he has all the necessary experience and ability to take the council forward in these challenging times."

Former county council leader Spencer Flower is due to appear at Bournemouth Magistrates' Court in April, following allegations that he failed to declare an interest in planning housing companies.

Councillor Flower has denied three charges and submitted not guilty pleas at a hearing last month.

View from the churches

A FEW days into the New Year, the resolutions we enthusiastically made a few days ago begin to fall apart.

The odd day when we don't go for that run, or do have an extra piece of toast at breakfast is forgivable, we tell ourselves. But as the days go by, our lack of resolve becomes more noticeable, and then with a sense of failure and frustration we drop the whole thing, hoping no one will notice. After all, we think, we've got the whole year to gear ourselves up to it, and then we can make another attempt next New Year.

I speak from personal experience here, but as the years go by I am gaining a little wisdom. To succeed in my resolve to make a new start, or to do something differently, I generally succeed if I focus on someone other than myself.

At Uplyme Church on January 24th at 6.30pm, we are holding a quiz evening. There will be great food including soup and a pud (unless you've resolved to give up puddings this year!) for just £5 (£2.50 for under 16s, and please bring your own drink).

The object of the exercise is to raise money for our Zambia Water Project which we run in conjunction with Tearfund. Over the last three years or so, by resolving to support activities like the quiz, or our summer ball, we have enabled 11 deep boreholes to be sunk, providing fresh water for the local community, benefitting a many people in a variety of ways.

Making and keeping these sorts of resolution can be far more compelling than keeping those focussed on ourselves.

The Lyme Regis & District Food Bank is in need of support. If we all resolve to give what we can we would make a substantial difference to people in need right on our doorstep.

Reverend Kate Woolven, Uplyme Parish Church

LymeNet can help make your 2015!

HAPPY New Year from LymeNet! New Year, new resolutions. This relates as much to us at LymeNet as everyone else. We need to keep getting better and helping more people.

We will be immediately starting with our free work in the library (Tuesday morning in Lyme, and Thursday mornings in Charmouth) helping people with their new technology. Did you get a new phone, camera, tablet computer, iPad, laptop, or e-reader for Christmas and are embarrassed to admit you haven't got a clue how to start using it? We'll work through the basics with you.

Maybe you need a new job and our careers advice and Job Club can help. Maybe its time to take the plunge with our introductory and highly practical computer courses so you can keep in touch with friends, family and all the information you might need. Maybe its time to get help with the creative development of that little business you always wanted? Or perhaps you have some skills you'd like to volunteer.

Lots of this is available free of charge, the things we must charge for are very modestly priced, and we're right in the middle of Lyme Regis so please try us.

News from LymeNet

We too have a long "to do" list of how we'd like to develop our work to enable more courses, new groups of learners. We want to spread the word about what we can offer. We'd also like to help more local businesses and organisations.

We want to become even more flexible in our approaches and even less like a traditional education establishment, so that fewer people can find a reason not to learn or try something new. Maybe you have some ideas about how we can do this, or what would make things more appropriate for you. In which case please contact us by email or phone, or interact with us on Twitter and Facebook.

We hope that 2015 is an exciting and amazing year for you. If our advice, support, facilities and teaching can help you make it happen we'd like to help.

Meeting to question cabinet system

■ THE "Public First" meeting takes place at the Corn Exchange, Dorchester, at 7pm on Wednesday, January 7th (tonight) and there is considerable public interest, despite confirmation that not only will district council leader Robert Gould not be attending, but all the seven other invited members of his party have now confirmed they will also not be attending.

There is, however, real interest on the selected issues of how West Dorset District Council applies its cabinet government; and on the option to investigate removing the district council tier of government by investigating "going unitary", as Wiltshire has successfully done.

Most of the evening will comprise members of the public's contributions from the floor – seen by many to be quite a fresh feature in this meeting, and it will be interesting to see what issues emerge from the public. Towards the end of the evening there'll be inputs from representatives of the Green, Labour, Lib-Dems and UKIP parties. The Conservatives have declined, and also declined an invitation for a separate 10-minutes slot for the leader to address the audience.

The public will indeed voice their views, and we believe it will be a landmark meeting that will be little affected by the decision of the eight ruling party members not to appear and hear the public's views. All welcome, doors open at 6.30pm.

JOHN GRANTHAM,
"Public First", Burton Bradstock

Now is not the time to cut hospital beds

■ ON January 7th the North Devon Heath Trust (NDHT) will decide on the "temporary" transfer of inpatient beds from Axminster Hospital to the community hospital at Seaton. For the foreseeable future this will mean that patients from the Lyme Regis area will no longer find a hospital bed on their doorstep.

The transfer has been described as "temporary" but there's little doubt that it's being seen as a permanent solution to staffing shortages and mounting agency costs at small hospitals such as Axminster and Seaton.

But recent history teaches us something about the relentless logic of decline. Any hospital which loses its inpatient beds immediately becomes more vulnerable to further cuts and "rationalisations". Until 2012 Axminster Hospital had 18 beds. This was cut to just 10 beds by 2013. Now they say it's too small and costly to be viable. By the end of January, Axminster may have no beds at all.

We have not arrived at this sorry state by accident, but by design. Axminster Hospital is the victim of successive reductions to beds in community hospitals. The paradox is that whilst North Devon Health Trust is busily cutting bed numbers in its hospitals, other local health chiefs are desperately trying to buy more beds in the private sector to help ease winter pressures. You couldn't make it up!

Given the age profile and vulnerability of our local population, and imminent council cuts to social care budgets, this is not the time to consider reducing or removing beds from a busy, well-used community hospital. The recruitment of nursing staff is a national problem to be sure, but the trust has made the local task so much harder by creating uncertainty around Axminster's future. Who would want to work for an organisation actively planning to close its major services?

We have asked the North Devon Health Trust to halt the process of decline in its community hospitals and retain the inpatient unit at Axminster Hospital. For patients in and around Lyme Regis, a community hospital should be precisely that – a local place, with beds for local people, when they need them.

How Lassie found fame after saving HMS Formidable sailor 100 years ago

■ I WAS pleased recently to pick up a copy of the View From Lyme Regis (December 31st) with the article about Mr Ron Hercok receiving his long overdue medal commemorating his participation in the hazardous Naval convoys to Russia in the Second World War.

Congratulations to a well-known member of the Lyme Regis community.

I also congratulate those involved in planning the 100th anniversary commemorations of the tragic sinking in Lyme Bay of HMS Formidable. The massive loss of life on that occasion should never be forgotten.

The detailed report of the landing of the lifeboat at Cobb Gate beach reminds me of another well-remembered event on that sad occasion.

The owner of the Pilot Boat Inn at the time had a wife who sadly suffered from epilepsy. Their black collie dog, Lassie, had been trained to raise the alarm if her mistress went into a fit on the floor.

When the lifeboat reached the beach, many of the sailors had died of hypothermia. Those who survived were helped ashore by many Lyme Regis people. Finally, the dead bodies were laid out on the beach.

Lassie, the dog from the Pilot Boat, appeared and started sniffing the bodies. Suddenly, she started barking and licking the face of one of the corpses. Lassie had found Able Seaman John Cowan still alive. He survived and lived to tell the tale.

Subsequently, Lassie was awarded a canine medal. As far as I know, the photo of her with the medal still hangs proudly in the Pilot Boat Inn and nearby is a photo of HMS Formidable.

Lassie's fame spread widely. Eventually, she was commemorated by the film industry with many films of "Lassie the Wonder Dog". The depiction of Lassie as a long-haired, shiny collie was quite a long way off from our Lassie, the black collie sheep dog who is still celebrated in Lyme Regis history and folk law.

The latest Lassie film featured a great actor, Pete O'Toole. I am sure at the time of the filming, Mr O'Toole made an incognito visit to the Pilot Boat Inn to gaze into the eyes of Lassie in her portrait photo. It might be a good idea if you have never seen inside the inn to make a visit and see the picture for yourself.

When I moved to Lyme Regis in the early 1970s to become landlord of the Cobb Arms, there was not a permanent war memorial in the town to commemorate those who were killed during the national conflicts.

In the early 80s, "Hurricane" Joe Wason, a fisherman at the Cobb harbour, had a large steel trawler, "The Barbarella". One day, he trawled from the deep a very large steel anchor. At the time, many thought it may have been a kedge anchor from HMS Formidable.

The anchor received some restoration work and it was then incorporated as part of the new war memorial that had been erected in the public gardens in George's Square, Monmouth Street.

In those days I conducted historical tours of the town and George's Square was part of my route. I pointed out the anchor as being a kedge anchor from HMS Formidable. At the end of one walk, a gentleman approached me and said he was a ship's architect with the Admiralty in London. He promised to check the original plans of the ship to authenticate whether the anchor was indeed from Formidable. A couple of weeks later a letter arrived; sadly, he said the anchor was not a kedge from the ship.

Even though the anchor in George's Square is not as hoped, it is a fine centre piece for the town's recording of the men of Lyme who gave their lives in order that, at the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

Congrats for new sea wall

■ DEFRA, West Dorset District Council, Lyme Regis Town Council, the architects, builders and everyone involved in the sea defences, and especially the new footpath, deserve congratulations.

The protection of the local environment, the magnificent views opened up by the footpath and the thoughtfully placed benches made from, it seems, driftwood logs, all bring a great improvement to Lyme Regis.

Not only can we enjoy a new amenity but we can be assured that the Charmouth Road will not fall into the sea for sometime to come.

Small steps to a healthier you

Easy tips for a healthier diet

- Change from sugary sodas to sugar-free or low-calorie drinks, or at least alternate the full sugar versions with water.
- Replace butter with low-fat spreads.
- Choose reduced fat cheese or when using cheese in cooking, try a stronger flavour like mature Cheddar, which means you can use less.
- Brown leaner mince when making spaghetti bolognese or chilli, then drain off any fat before adding other ingredients.
- Choose desserts and dressings that are lower in fat.
- Use semi-skimmed, 1% fat or skimmed milk instead of whole milk.
- Swap sugary cereals for plain ones like porridge or wholegrain wheat biscuits.
- Use less sugar and salt, and try not to add salt to food when cooking.

Break the boozing

- If you tend to have a drink at a certain time, break the habit by doing something different at that time.
- If you drink every day, try to have at least two days a week when you don't drink at all.
- Pace yourself by sipping slowly, and space your drinks out - have a soft drink or glass of water in between.
- Have a smaller bottle of beer instead of a can, or a single instead of a double.
- Swap your usual for a drink with less alcohol, which may be cheaper and often has less calories.

Active ideas

- Walk or cycle to work, school and/or the shops.
- Use the stairs instead of the lift.
- Dance madly to your favourite songs in the kitchen.
- Take up a sport you enjoyed at school.
- Do some active housework or gardening.

2015 fitness trends

LONG gone are the days when exercising meant going for a jog or heading to the local aerobics class.

These things still exist of course, but not quite in the same way - aerobics now means a long list of pump-it/dance-it/blast-it/shake-it-to-the-beat variations, there are all sorts of fancy gizmos and disciplines for strengthening up and, while jogging might still essentially be the same, look at how many people are now 'training' for an event, monitoring progress on smartphones and investing in the latest gravity-defying trainers.

Certainly, we're spoilt for choice these days when it comes to how we exercise. 2014 saw high-intensity interval training [HIIT] become mainstream, 'personal bests' are something everybody - not just pro athletes - think about, and getting-my-sweat-on overtook pouting-on-a-night-out as the social media selfie of choice.

According to the trend forecasters, there's more to come in 2015.

"We've all become more serious about sports and recognised that we might actually improve our performance if we trained specifically for the event," says leading personal trainer Matt Roberts. "It's taken a while, but following advice experts have given for years is now on-trend and set to continue. Blame/thank the rise of triathlon and cycling, and their physical and technical demands..."

Indeed, 'fit not thin' was the mantra for 2014, with toned, healthy and strong overtaking catwalk-skinny as the most bandied body ideal (hurrah!). But how we look isn't the only fitness reward we cherish; how it makes us feel is important too.

"Working out now isn't just for the sake of it, and it's not just for aesthetics," adds Roberts. "A trek, mountain climb, triathlon, duathlon or any of the other events available are becoming the norm. Find a new goal, make it big, the world is your oyster and nothing is going to stop you in 2015!"

Personal fulfilment, improved mental and physical health, camaraderie and supporting charity campaigns all feature on our list of motivations for pursuing challenges too. On a day-to-day scale, against a backdrop of obesity epidemic headlines and rising rates of stress and depression, each and every one of us can benefit from being active.

Time and convenience top the list

"We're increasingly time poor," says Dave Kyle, head trainer for Les Mills UK. "We're working longer hours than ever, so finding time to work out can be increasingly difficult."

"A huge trend for 2015 will be convenience and time efficiency," adds Kyle. "Whereas previous years we've heard about extreme and tough workouts, 2015 will see more classes and workouts being offered that fit in and complement our busy lifestyles."

Top vocalist at Jazz Cafe

ELAINE DAVIES WILL WOW WITH HER VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL PROWESS

VOCALIST Elaine Davies is also a multi-instrumentalist, playing saxophone, flute and clarinet, and the audience will be able to experience all of these at the Bridport Arts Centre Jazz Café on Friday, January 16th. (She also plays the piano but this role will be filled on this occasion by the jazz café impresario Philip Clouts).

Elaine appeared on prime time TV during the many years that she was with the Midland Youth Jazz Orchestra, and when she eventually moved to Devon she played in the Algy Davies Quartet, supporting many visiting national jazz musicians.

Elaine Davies is the musical director of the Carlton Big Band and the Carlton Swing Band. She also has her own jazz quartet, is a woodwind teacher in Devon, and a jazz educator. She plays the lead tenor saxophone in both bands as well as being a vocalist in the band.

Elaine is from the West Midlands and is a multi-instrumentalist. She started playing piano at the age of seven, clarinet at eleven, and saxophone since she was fifteen, then the flute at eighteen. She is also a classically trained singer, and joined Opera South West when she came to the West Country, enjoying playing such prestigious leading roles such as Bizet's 'Carmen' at Buckland Abbey.

Instead of touring with the Ivy Benson Band, she chose instead to come to Plymouth to take up a Head of Music teaching position. She first got the bug for jazz when she started doing jazz club gigs in Birmingham with her saxophone teacher, Mike Burney, (Lead tenor saxophonist in Syd Lawrence Orchestra) while still at school.

Having tuition from Don Rendell at Whitley Hall, Sheffield, and master classes from Alan Wakeman and Stan Sultzman at Glamorgan College, Elaine soon became passionate about playing jazz. She was a member of the original Midland Youth Jazz Orchestra for many years, on lead tenor, making an album with Kenny Baker and the band, and appearing on prime time TV with MYJO.

Since moving to Plymouth, she met her first husband Lloyd (Algy) Davies at a jazz club. He was a superb jazz trombonist and Elaine played saxophone and flute in the Algy Davies Sextet, which often featured stars such as Don Rendell, Dick Pearce, Harry Beckett and Bobby Wellins. Elaine has played with many other bands such as Tour De Force, Joey The Lips, Soul Station and various jazz bands, and supports the Cavitron Fund by playing saxophone at their Fundraising Luncheons. She is kept busy being a bandleader and saxophonist, and teaching woodwind instruments in schools.

Elaine Davies will sing and play a variety of well loved jazz from the "Great American Songbook, on Friday, January 16th at 8pm at Bridport Arts Centre. Tickets are £10 available from the box office on 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

A magical adventure for all the family

IN LONG ago England, amidst tranquil fields and meadows stands the tiny Hamlet of Wall. On the edge of the town, guarded around the clock, a stone wall separates the quiet town from the magical land of Faerie. Here, a young man has lost his heart and mind to the hauntingly beautiful Victoria Forester. And then, in the dead of night, a shooting star falls and breaches the wall of his love, sending him on the adventure of a lifetime.

In the luminescent glow of this star he will battle witches, sorcery, and fate, before finding his hearts true desire.

Forest Forge, the award-winning Hampshire based theatre company, have been entrusted with touring the world premiere of a stage adaptation of Neil Gaiman's classic Stardust. This wonderful family adventure was famously made into a film starring Michelle Pfeiffer and Robert De Niro in 2007. Packed full of eccentric characters, hilarious and thrilling moments, haunting music, magic and mayhem, this promises to be another special and unmissable seasonal show.

Forest Forge Theatre perform 'Stardust' on Wednesday, January 14th, at 7.30pm at Toller Porcum Village Hall, for more details call 01300 320373. The show then comes to West Lulworth Village Hall on Friday, January 23rd at 7.30pm, for more details call 01929 400790.

Casanova in Love

SO FAMOUS (or infamous) is the name of Casanova that it has gone into our dictionaries to describe men who are, for want of a better word, 'popular' with women.

Pip Utton, a firm favourite on the Artsreach circuit, has produced spellbinding performances over recent years, including 'Churchill', 'Chaplin' and 'Charles Dickens'. However, it's Casanova's story that this acclaimed performer has wanted to explore for some time. Now in a brand new play, Pip manages to fuse theatre and the spoken word with dance, to bring an added element to the story. Pip obviously plays Casanova, and has almost all the dialogue, but is also joined on stage by a young contemporary French dancer Marguerite Chaigne who, though few words to say, portrays all six of his conquests.

Comic and moving, surprising and beautiful Casanova is a totally entertaining piece of theatre. Welcome to Casanova's memories, his dreams, his conquests and his broken hearts, his highs and his lows, his triumphs and his defeats and, of course, his seduction secrets.

'Casanova in Love comes to Broadwindsor Comrades Hal on Friday, January 23rd at 7.30pm. For more details call 01308 867644.

Comedy Network launches at the Palace

ON A COLD winter's night, there's nothing like a good belly laugh and January 2015 sees the launch of the Electric Palace's new Comedy Network.

The first event, on Friday, January 9th, features Jarlath Regan, Adam Hess and Mark Smith.

Award winning comedian and writer for Russell Howard's Good News and the hit Irish panel show, The Panel, Jarlath Regan has gained a reputation with the industry and audiences for his uplifting, inventive and relentlessly funny stand-up, enjoying sell-out runs at the Fringe since 2007. A finalist in both the BBC and Channel 4 New Comedy Awards, Jarlath's first published book How To Break Bad News was an instant best-seller. It gained many celebrity fans including Ardal O'Hanlon who called it "Original, funny and deliciously wrong!" Jarlath's second book Putting A Ring On It - What Not To Do When Attempting To Get Married became a cult hit in his homeland.

Adam Hess (winner of Chortle Student Comedy Award 2011) is well-known for his surreal one-liners and prolific writing talents, having written for TV regulars such as Sean Walsh and Chris Ramsey. Adam has also become widely known for his unique brand of comedy on Twitter and in the last two years has accrued tens of thousands of followers from the jokes he posts there alone. The BBC even filmed a selection of his tweets as sketches starring him as one of their 'Feed My Funny' videos.

Mark Smith (Russell Howard's Good News, MTV) has been performing stand-up regularly since 2008 and has rapidly established himself as one of the most interesting and exciting comics on the circuit. Since reaching the final of 'So You Think You're Funny' in 2009, Mark has gigged all over the UK, is a regular MC and has broken into television to present for MTV2 and to write and perform for 'Dick and Dom's Funny Business' on BBC Two. When Mark is not gigging he is the warm-up for shows such as Have I Got News For You and Room 101 (both BBC1).

There's more comedy at the Electric Palace the following week when Sara Pascoe, one of Britain's funniest women, will be on stage on Saturday, January 17th. A week later, the Electric Palace's second comedy network, featuring Gareth Richards, Phil Wang, Kieran Boyd, takes place on Friday, January 23rd.

New year, new historical dance class

HOW are you feeling after days of enjoying good food, partying or watching television? Would you like some exercise, trying something different that stretches muscles and mind? Why not try historical dance?

Starting on January 22nd, the classes take place every fourth Thursday from 7.30pm to 10.30pm. The Town Hall is above the Corn Exchange and you can park near the entrance in North Square. Cost is £6 (£5 concessions) which gets you 3 hours of expert tuition, exercise for body and brain, and a cuppa with like-minded new friends.

Tutor Ann Hinchliffe trains with Dolmetsch Historical Dance Society and the Early Dance Circle, whose experts appeared before Christmas on BBC Four with Len Goodman and Dr Lucy Worsley. "I've danced ceilidh and morris for years," she says. "I wondered where the dances came from, so I began studying with Dolmetsch. Now I'm the historical dancing master at Barrington Court, a National Trust property where we dance in the Tudor Great Hall. I'm looking forward to running the class in Dorchester where there's such a treasury of history and music."

Dances will cover several centuries during each session, from Renaissance galliards to Jacobean country dances and Regency cotillions. "The dances are musical aerobics, as in the days before central heating," explains Ann. "We warm up with gentle steps, then tackle one complex dance each session. Since 2015 is the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo, this year's focus will be on Regency dances." Is that what we saw in the Jane Austen films? "Yes, but faster. Dances in films have to be slowed down for actors to speak their lines while they move. People are often surprised by how energetic the originals are."

Dorset has other historical dancers: Libby Goodchild's Tuesday evening class at Dorchester Ballet School, Yeo Historical Dancers who practise at Sherborne, and until recently Ring of Eight. The new group, however, is not a performance team. So: no costume needed, but comfortable loose clothes and flexible footwear. You don't have to bring a partner, you don't need previous experience, you don't have to commit yourself to more than one session. Just turn up at Dorchester Town Hall and prepare to be challenged.

For more details call Ann Hinchliffe on 01935 472771 or email samedifference@live.co.uk.

One man Dracula show in Wootton

BEWARE. He is coming. Keep your windows locked and gather in the garlic.

The team that brought you the award-winning 'Great Expectations' have got their teeth into Bram Stoker's classic tale of the vampire. "outrageously versatile" actor David Mynne brings you a one-man performance of Dracula. Blood and bats. Garlic and gore. Lunatics and flies. Sexy lady vampires. Coffins, crypts and the Count himself. They're all here in this brand-new adaptation of Bram Stoker's gothic pot-boiler. Be warned: this monstrous, disturbing and completely batty tale of dark deeds and the Undead, will thrill and seduce you! Suitable for adults and older children (12+)

"mesmerising and joyful... Faultless" Exeter Ignite Festival

This show will tour with Art-scream, who this year are celebrating 25 years of bringing live professional performances to rural Dorset.

David Mynne brings 'Dracula' to Wootton Fitzpaine Village Hall on Thursday, February 12th at 7.30pm (doors open 7pm).

Tickets are £8 (U18s £6) from Box Office Box at The Charmouth Practice.

Property View

JEREMY Smith and Lucy Nolan, managers of Symonds & Sampson sales and lettings in Beaminster respectively (pictured), are delighted to invite the readers of View From Beaminster to a landlords evening on Thursday 22nd January, 2015. Lucy commented 'We have a hugely successful lettings business in our Bridport office which is now expanding to Beaminster. We have always been successful within Beaminster town, but we are now seeing even higher levels of activity and therefore, it is only right that we increase our presence by having lettings staff within the Beaminster office'. Jeremy added 'many of our buyers are seeking to purchase a home to rent out and enjoy the obvious benefits and now we will have Lucy and the lettings team on hand to give excellent advice'.

Lucy and her team will be able to give you information on the following:-

Do you sums – Seek advice from our lettings department on the monthly rental against the cost of your mortgage repayments. Don't forget to take into account voids where the property sits empty for a month or two.

Research the market – Choose an area where there are good facilities such as local shops, pubs, schools and public transport.

Tenants – Do not imagine yourself living in the property but, put yourself in the shoes of your target tenant. Who are they and what do they want? Young Professionals – modern and stylish. Families – They have their own belongings so a blank canvass is essential.

Know the legislation – It is essential that a Landlord knows their obligations under the law.

For example, gas safety certificates, safe electrics and don't forget a Landlord is classed as a commercial business under the Health & Safety rules and regulations.

Consider how hand-on you want to be – Buying a property is only the first step. Will you rent it out yourself or use an agent to do so? We offer a very varied service for experienced or first time landlords.

Are you happy with your existing agent?

Symonds & Sampson LLP manage more than 600 properties are members of ARLA. We offer a wide range of services to suit most Landlords.

Jeremy and Lucy will both be delighted to see you at the Landlords evening which will be held between 5pm and 7pm, so why not come along and enjoy a glass of wine and nibbles and hopefully we will be able to answer any questions you may have with regard to the lettings market.

For further information contact Symonds and Sampson Beaminster 01308 861944.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Kim Beauchamp Foot Health Practitioner

I moved to Axminster in 2013 and already have a well established mobile foot care clinic, offering a consultation and treatment service for foot health problems. I visit patients in their own homes as well as nursing/residential homes, which provides a convenient and flexible service especially for those with less mobility. My initial visit includes a full medical history overview, foot health assessment, professional foot advice and treatment.

My aim is to provide my patients with a professional and friendly service ensuring that the highest standards of hygiene are maintained at all times. I work with each patient on a foot health treatment plan to achieve and maintain healthy and pain free feet.

Conditions where treatment and advice is available range from:

- Corns and calluses
- Fungal foot and nail infections
- Verrucae
- Cracked heels
- Ingrown toenails
- Ball of foot pain
- Diabetic foot care
- Footwear advice

Whether you require a one-off treatment or foot care attention on a regular basis I can be contacted on 07926 093053 or 01460 221806.

The Power To Captivate

Ahead of the 2015 North American International Auto Show (NAIAS) in Detroit, Infiniti raises the curtain on its vision of a premium sports coupe.

The striking Q60 Concept is poised to entice coupe fans with its sharp contours and hand-crafted interior, while at the same time suggesting performance and power to match. Result: a no-compromise fusion of looks and speed.

The Q60 Concept sits low and wide in a road-hugging stance hinting at exceptional dynamics and driving pleasure.

While the Q60 Concept is fresh and original, it evokes a sense of déjà vu at times with whiffs and traces of the Q80 Inspiration (shown this past October at the Paris Motor Show) evident in its finest details.

The audaciously low roofline and quilted leather seats remind one of the elegant full-size Q80 Inspiration, while the aerodynamic gills behind the front wheel arches are inherited from the Q50 Eau Rouge sports saloon concept.

"The Q80 Inspiration was an indication of Infiniti's future design language," said Alfonso Albaisa, Infiniti Executive Design Director. "The Q60 Concept is the next step in the journey."

"The sweeping lines of the Q80 Inspiration gave the Q60 Concept its coupe silhouette and looks while the Formula One-inspired touches from the Q50 Eau Rouge endowed the coupe with its sports personality."

The visual excitement in the edgy lines of the concept is set off by the custom 21-inch wheels which take up the entire wheel arch. Inspired by jet turbine blades, the black spokes in a combination of mattes and chromes stretch to the edge of the wheel, further emphasising how "planted" the coupe is.

The high-quality ambience inside speaks of Infiniti's meticulous attention to detail, clearly evident from the impeccable hand-stitched leather to the precise treatment of the carbon fibre accents.

Infiniti designers use a variety of leathers on the seats to provide just the perfect balance of comfort and support as befits a premium sports coupe. They also make the Q60 Concept a genuine "2+2" coupe by giving rear passengers more legroom through the use of genuine sport seats.

As a foreshadowing of the next generation of Infiniti's premium sports coupe, the Q60 Concept makes use of taut lines and sports car cues to convey exceptional stance and presence.

See the Q60 Concept in the metal when Infiniti holds its 2015 NAIAS press conference at 8:10am on Tuesday, January 13th.

2015 Mazda CX-5 - Upgraded Standard Equipment

▲ 2015 Mazda CX-5, EU Spec

THE 2015 Mazda CX-5 upgraded model goes on sale in the UK in spring this year. Priced from £22,295 to £30,595 on-the-road (OTR), the 16-strong model range features significant interior trim and standard equipment specification upgrades, as well as exterior enhancements.

The 2015 Mazda CX-5 model range is available in three grades; SE-L, SE-L Lux and Sport Nav. The range comprises three 2.0 litre petrol two-wheel drive variants equipped with six-speed manual transmissions, and thirteen 2.2 litre diesel versions - six of which are available with all-wheel drive - fitted with a choice of six speed manual or automatic transmissions.

'No other vehicle in the Mazda range demonstrates the value of SKYACTIV technology more clearly than the Mazda CX-5' commented Mazda UK Sales Director, Peter Allibon. 'It has allowed the company to build a Compact SUV that delivers outstanding fuel economy and low CO2 emissions without compromising either performance or driving dynamics. And now, for 2015, significant enhancements and standard equipment upgrades make the Mazda CX-5 more price-competitive than ever before.'

The standard equipment specification of every model in the CX-5 line-up has been enhanced through the addition of manual front passenger seat height adjustment, an electronic parking brake, a coming/leaving home headlamp function, and the company's Multimedia Commander with separate volume dial for safe, intuitive interactivity and infotainment control.

A new 7-inch, full-colour, centre console touch-screen incorporates DAB radio, two ports for USB connectivity and MZD Connect. Paired with a smartphone, MZD Connect makes it easier to take advantage of functions such as internet connectivity and access to social networking services.

Top-of-the-range Sport Nav models benefit from new exterior features including 19-inch Gunmetal alloy wheels, LED headlamps including LED daytime running lights, and LED foglamps.

On board, an already comprehensive Sport Nav standard equipment specification is further bolstered by a new Integrated Navigation system which offers greater accuracy, improved search features and three years of free map updating.

SE-L Lux and Sport Nav grade options now include Stone Leather upholstery (in lieu of black), whilst the Sport Nav options list further benefits from Mazda Radar Cruise Control, and an evolution of the Safety Pack which incorporates several newly-developed technologies.

Adaptive LED headlamps (ALH) automatically adjust the array of high beam illumination to avoid dazzling the occupants of both oncoming and preceding vehicles, without the need to switch to low beam lighting.

The Lane-keep Assist System (LAS) with Driver Attention Alert (DAA) builds on the existing Lane Departure Warning system, providing steering wheel vibration and assisted steering if the driver strays from the middle of the chosen lane. Having first learned the owners driving style, DAA operates at speeds of over 40mph, alerting drivers to take a break if it detects a degradation in driving style indicating fatigue.

Advanced Blind-Spot Monitoring with Rear Cross-Traffic Alert (BSMw/RCTA) combines two systems in one for greater safety. The system's larger detection area to the side and rear of the vehicle provides better coverage, whilst BSM employs the same system sensors to detect pedestrians, bicycles and other vehicles when reversing.

Rear Smart City Brake Support (RSCBS) operates at speeds of between 2 and 5mph when reversing, automatically applying the brakes if the system detects an imminent rear impact.

Mazda2 Black Edition And White Edition Celebrate The New Year In Style

SEEING in the New Year in style, two new special edition 5-door Mazda2 models, the Black Edition and White Edition, is on sale from January 1st 2015 priced at £12,145 on-the-road.

Since its launch in 2007, the current Mazda2 has won over the Supermini segment with its styling flair, engaging driving dynamics and generous equipment specification levels. Embodying the model's energy and spirit, the Black Edition and White Edition bring more than a dash of extra urban chic to the Mazda2 line-up with sporting styling cues and a host of unique specification features.

"The Mazda2 Black Edition and White Edition represent a last chance for our customers to get their hands on a unique version of the current 5-door Mazda2," said Mazda UK Sales Director, Peter Allibon. "As with every Mazda special edition model, they combine bespoke exterior and interior styling with a lavish standard equipment specification, offering customers stand-out individuality and outstanding value for money."

A choice of bold, Jet Black Mica or Crystal White Pearlescent exterior colours is complemented by bespoke, diffuser-style rear bumper trim, a Jet Black rear spoiler and power-operated, heated folding door mirrors, rear privacy glass, 15-inch Dark Grey alloy wheels, unique Black Edition and White Edition badging, and the no-cost option of striking, colour-coded bonnet and roof stripe graphics.

On board, that sporting flair is reinforced by body-coloured accents to the door trim and air vents, black cloth upholstery with red piping, glossy Dark Grey audio panel and steering wheel inserts.

A lavish, special edition equipment specification includes manual air-conditioning, a CD player with two speakers, USB and AUX connectivity and a no-cost option steering wheel-integrated Bluetooth® hands-free system.

The new Black Edition and White Edition are powered by Mazda's lively 1.3-litre 75ps petrol engine mated to a slick 5-speed manual transmission. And both urban and open-road safety standards are enhanced by the addition of Dynamic Stability Control (DSC) and a Traction Control System (TCS).

The appeal of the current Mazda2 model range has been further enhanced through an improved finance offer. All models are now available with Zero deposit, 0% APR* Representative on Mazda Personal Contract Purchase (PCP) and a Deposit Contribution which has been increased from £500 to £750, over a maximum term of 42 months.

The line-up is also available with 0% APR* Conditional Sale with a minimum deposit of 30%, with a maximum term of three years, or 5.9% APR* Conditional Sale with no minimum deposit and a maximum term of five years. Both financial offers are available until March 31st 2015.

Beaten but not disgraced - all-conquering
Barrington just too strong for Netherbury

RESULTS

Combe Res 3

(at Millwey Rise FC)

PERRY STREET LEAGUE
Division One Cup Final

BARRINGTON 3 NETHERBURY 1
(Saturday, January 3rd at Misterton)
BARRINGTON continued their seemingly inevitable march to an unprecedented quartet of trophies with victory over a plucky Netherbury side at Misterton on Saturday.

Both teams came into the game in magnificent form with Barrington unbeaten all season and Netherbury having won their last eight on the spin.

After some questionable choices for cup final venues in recent years, PSDL officials' decision to stage the game at Misterton was fully justified with the vast majority of other matches in the region washed out and the Unity Lane surface in decent shape.

Barrington took the game to the Ambers from the off. In the first minute pacey front man Tom Perry fired into the side netting. Then centre-back Sam Spurway showed great technique to chest the ball down before swivelling well and forcing a fine low save from keeper Rob Harp.

Soon after Harp went full stretch to turn a Guy Dare shot around the post.

But the parity couldn't last and it was no surprise in the 17th minute when impressive left-back Dan Rolandson skipped over a couple of challenges before reaching the byline and crossing for Perry to slot the ball home.

At this stage Netherbury, in their third final in this competition in the last six seasons, were largely limited to efforts from corner kicks which were dealt with well by Barrington keeper-captain Mark Cullen, Spurway and his centre-back partner Mike Whitefield who was later adjudged MoM.

The lead was doubled just before the half-hour when referee Chris Emmerson, officiating in his first PSDL cup final spotted a trip by Netherbury full-back Christian Steward on Perry, and top-scorer Andy Whitefield smashed the resulting penalty kick high into the net for his 23rd goal of the season.

Netherbury then finally began to force their way into the game. A swift counter attack down the left wing following a Barrington corner saw Chris Symes have a shot blocked by Cullen.

Soon after this a flick on reached the unmarked Mark Cuff unmarked at the back stick but his header from six yards lacked power.

Just before the break Tom Franklin fired a drive from the corner of the box which was well saved by Cullen.

There was a rash of bookings just around the interval with Mike Whitefield, Perry and James Thompson all finding themselves in referee Emmer-son's book in a short space of time. And the mounting number of cautions were to prove crucial later in the match.

Barrington were slow out of the blocks after the turnaround and the Ambers sensed a chance to force their way back into a game that had seemed to be lost.

Cuff had a close range back heel blocked and striker Ryan Gall was denied by a fine last ditch tackle by Mike Whitefield.

They grabbed a lifeline their head of steam deserved on the hour when a close range shot from Ryan Gay was handed on the line and Franklin coolly side-footed home from 12 yards.

This was the first goal Barrington had conceded in more than six hours of competitive football.

But hopes of completing a stirring fightback were ended four minutes later when Ambers' defender Nathan Goldstone was dismissed after receiving a second yellow card.

The result was confirmed in the 68th minute when a long throw-in was flicked home by a near post header from Simon Cherry.

Dare went close to rubbing salt into the wounds when he caught Gay in possession but his angled shot was blocked by Harp.

Dare and Gay, who had a good battle throughout, were added to referee Emmer-son's bulging book after tangling late on.

Dare then found Andy Whitefield but his shot was tipped over by glove-man Harp.

It mattered not, and Barrington lifted the trophy for the second time - the first occasion being way back in 1967-68.

Bees get New Year off to good start

BLANDFORD UNITED 2

BRIDPORT RESERVES 3

BRIDPORT Reserves, boosted by the inclusion of three first teamers following their postponement, got the New Year off to a winning start with a hard fought win against the Royals.

However they got off to a slow start and Dan Vater gave Blandford the lead with a long-range shot.

Bridport finally got into gear and capitalised on two goalkeeping errors with goals from Dan Bagges and Jamie Filkins to take a half-time lead.

However, with the wind behind them after the break the Royals claimed parity when Luke Pidgley scored midway through the half.

It looked as if the hosts might go on to win but it was Bridport that scored; Jack Scovell finishing off good work between Dan Peart and Adam Steele to score with a firm shot into the corner.

However, Blandford continued to take the game to the Bees and keeper Jamie Fry was forced into a superb save before Adam Stordy came to the rescue with a fine challenge.

penalty miss

In the final minute however the Royals were thrown a lifeline after Ryan Hayter was adjudged to have pushed his man in the back, but fortunately for the Bees Kieron Mulvey missed the spot kick.

West Bay Sea Angling

Cullingford finally breaks his duck

AFTER years of trying Adam Cullingford finally won the West Bay Sea Angling Club's Christmas Fayre held at Burton Bradstock and West Bay.

Most anglers fished at Burton, and with a good sea running with plenty of colour, they caught cod, dogfish whiting, pout and rockling. Cullingford's haul of just over 5kg of fish saw him win by some margin from Simon Bowditch and Paul House.

Competitors weighed-in back at the Salthouse where they enjoyed a hot meal and after the prize giving, a draw was made for the Christmas presents that competitors brought to the match.

Result: 1st: Adam Cullingford 5070g, 2nd: Simon Bowditch 3360g, 3rd: Paul House 3150g, Heaviest fish: Paul House - cod 1320g, Most species: Craig Horton - five bearded/shore rockling and pout.

Andy Neal Rover - Dec 13th

A WEEK earlier, all but two anglers chose to fish at Burton on a calm and cold evening with plenty of fish coming to the scales.

Lea Windsor was one of those anglers who decided to fish at Bexington, which was a good move as he found plenty of fish including five plump codling.

1st: Lea Windsor 8125g, 2nd: Ollie Mears 7129g, 3rd: Steve Fowles 7045g, Most species: PJ Wheeler (8) - flounder, codling, dogfish, pout, whiting, poor cod and five-bearded/shore rockling, Heaviest fish: (above bags removed) Paul House - dogfish 875g.

This completed the club's fixture list for the year; the first match of 2015 took place on January 1st at Abbotsbury.

The club's new membership year also starts on January 1st; to join or for more information please contact the Angling Centre, West Bay.

Bob Buckler racing

Ugolin de Beaumont shows his potential

BOB Buckler had a busy time over Christmas and the New Year with mixed results with the novice UGOLIN DE BEAUMONT showing good form in only his second race when finishing second to Ghost River in the bumper at Chepstow.

His run is given more credence by the fact that winning trainer Peter Bowen and Rebecca Curtis and Jeremy Scott whose horses finished behind Buckler, rate their charges the best novice horse they have had.

There was also more success for BALLYEGAN, who continued his recent return to form having won twice, finishing second in the novices' handicap hurdle over 2m7f at Exeter on New Year's Day behind the well handicapped Nordic Nymph.

However there was little success for three others at the same meeting. DIGGER'S MATE was once again disappointing, finishing last but one in his hurdle race after being pulled up two days earlier at Taunton, whilst the previously impressive THE HAPPY WARRIOR drew another blank when pulled up in the handicap chase over 3m when reasonably placed when horse and jockey got too close to the wings halfway round.

SOMERSET LIAS hated the heavy ground and was further hampered when boxed in on the chewed up ground on the final bend after leading briefly and finished seventh in the 2m3f handicap hurdle. He will need further and better ground in future.

Buckler however was encouraged by his last runner at Exeter; SAY MY NAME running in his third bumper coming through to finish fifth.

Buckler said: "It was a lovely run considering he is a four-year old running against older five and six year olds.

"He also struggled in the heavy ground, and after dropping back to almost last approaching the final straight on the chewed up ground, came through with a strong run on the better surface to finish fifth."

TINKER TIME after his recent successes, also found the ground far too heavy for him last Saturday in the Class 2 32Red Casino Handicap Chase over 3m at Sandown and finished seventh.

A WATERLOGGED pitch at Thorverton Reserves' Raddon Road Ground halted Lyme Regis first team's hopes of continuing their superb recent Devon & Exeter League Division Three form which has yielded four wins and a draw and 31 goals from the free-scoring Seaside's front line.

Without tempting fate, Lyme are well up with their fixtures and have completed exactly half of their scheduled programme.

The second half of the season is going to be largely about how Tim Edwards' side adapt to new surroundings with just three of their remaining 12 matches being played at the Davey Fort.

The key games would appear to be the home and away games with fellow promotion contenders Exeter University (A - January 24th) and (H - April 25th) along with the trips to Woodbury (April 18th) and Dartmoor-based Chagford (April 11th) who have clearly bolstered their squad since the 2-1 defeat at the Fort back in September and banked three more points with a 9-3 win at Pinhoe on Saturday in the only game played in the Division at the weekend.

Next up for Lyme is Saturday's visit by bottom of the table Pinhoe who are on a miserable run of six straight defeats and lost manager Dave Bennett who resigned on Monday. Kick-off at the Fort is 2.15pm.

Lyme Regis Reserves' second-half of the season has been disrupted by the news that goalkeeper Will Meech is likely to be sidelined for the remainder of the campaign by the knee injury that has restricted him to just six matches.

Manager Gerard Hitchcock is likely to turn to utility man Ryan Turner to don the gloves and take over between the sticks.

On Saturday The Resses, currently eighth in the PSDL Premier Division head off to the Slades Cross slope to take on a Combe Reserves' side no doubt still smarting from a 6-3 Coronation Cup Final defeat against Shepton Beauchamp despite leading 2-0 with nine minutes left! Lyme Regis Bantams are without a fixture.

There's an intriguing Daisy Hutchings Cup last 16 tie (2pm ko) at Venlake where UPLYME, currently lying midtable in Division Two, welcome a reformed Merriott Rovers who are clearly running away with the Division Four title having re-entered the league in August.

Despite being favourites on paper, The Swallows will do well to be in the last eight come 5pm on Saturday. Uplyme Reserves have no fixture.

Finally, CHARMOUTH will have hopes of moving into the top half of the Division Two table with a victory over lowly visitors Combe A at Barrs Lane.

◆ THERE was a welcome face from the past at the Davey Fort on Saturday when ex-player Ian Gray dropped in for a chat with regulars on a visit with his family over from Kansas where he has been living for several years.

Gray was a hard-working attacking midfielder who bagged 133 goals for the Seaside in the 80s and 90s during which time he also had a season as first team player-manager.
